BOLD LOVE TAPE 1 (VHS9982)

Tape 1 of 2 -- We've come to view love and forgiveness as little more than acting pleasantly, yielding to the will of others, and ignoring offenses. But this definition leaves us with either shallow, passionless relationships or suppressed frustrations toward those with whom we live or work closely. In this video series, Dr. Allender undermines our traditional notions of love and shows us that love is much more -- and much different -- than merely "getting along" with others. Instead, accompanied by dramatic vignettes, Dr. Allender introduces a creative new way of relating -- one that has the capacity to make a significant, life-changing impact on all those we come in contact with, whether they be family, friends, coworkers, or even enemies. This series will help you and your group discover: the surprising goals of biblical love; what it really means to turn the other cheek; how to help someone see what he or she is doing to others; what it means to honor a wicked person; how to love a violent person without suffering continued damage; how to be shrewd without being manipulative; when to let something slide and when to confront.
